MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

VIA: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: Lt Gen Edward J. Heinz, USAF
Director, Intelligence Community Staff

SUBJECT: New Chairman of the Intelligence Research and Development Council

1. Action: That you sign the attached note to the Secretary of Defense and the accompanying memorandum to the National Foreign Intelligence Community concerning the appointment of Dr. Robert C. Duncan, Director, Defense Research and Engineering, as the new Chairman of the Intelligence Research and Development Council.

2. Background: With the departure of Don Latham, as the Chairman of the Council, Mr. Hineman temporarily assumed the position until Defense had a new candidate. Mr. Carlucci has now indicated to Mr. Gates their nominee is Dr. Duncan, Director, Defense Research and Engineering. Mr. Gates has talked to Dr. Duncan who agrees to assume the Chairmanship. The attached provides notification to the National Foreign Intelligence Community of this assignment, and in addition thanks the Secretary for his nomination.

Edward J. Heinz
Lieutenant General, USAF

Dear Mr. Secretary:

I wish to express my appreciation for your nomination of Dr. Robert C. Duncan to serve as the Chairman of the Intelligence Research and Development Council. The Council has served us well in the past by identifying Intelligence R&D issues which require management attention, and I know Cliff will continue this tradition.

Sincerely yours,

William H. Webster
